State to Reconsider Sixth Ward Site

A proposed Sixth Ward site for a local state-sponsored low rental housing project will be reconsidered by state officials who will be in the city next week to discuss this and other proposed sites, Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk announced today.

The mayor and a committee of the Kingston Housing Authority discussed local housing problems in the New York office of Herman T. Stuchman, state commissioner of housing yesterday.

The conference resulted in a decision by Commissioner Stuchman to send two technicians from his department to Kingston next Tuesday for further study and discussion of the local housing proposal.

Barkley Will Pick Crime Committee

Five-Senator Group Has Democratic Majority; Veep Is Busy

Washington, April 14 (AP)—Senate veterans and today Vice President Barkley probably is exercising more power and influence than any recent holder of his office.

The genial 72-year-old Kentuckian has taken an unusual and independent hand in several recent Senate actions. And he gives every sign of keeping that up at least during this election year session.

Most of the recent Barkley moves have brought no pleasure to Republican leaders Wherry of Nebraska, Taft of Ohio or other G.O.P. stalwarts in the Senate.

Under a compromise plan agreed to by the Senate Democratic Policy Committee, Barkley will have a free hand in selecting the five senators—three Democrats and two Republicans—who will stage an investigation of nationwide crime syndicates.

The compromise will set up a five-senator single group from both the judiciary and commerce committees. Some Republicans who wanted to take part in the probe will lose out. So will some Democrats.

Southern senators privately credit Barkley with prevailing upon Mr. Truman to sign a farm price support bill that will aid some cotton and peanut farmers.

Barkley and other administration Democrats kept the telephone busy between here and West, Pa., after rumors were circulated that the President might veto the measure. He

Presentation Is Made by Resident of Stone Ridge; by Rhind

Heroic statues representing Hendrick Hudson, Peter Stuyvesant and DeWitt Clinton have been set up on a specially designed pedestal at Academy Green.

The bronze statues were the work of John Massey Rhind (1880-1936), a noted sculptor. They were given to the city by Mrs. Emily C. Chadbourne of Stone Ridge and were put into place this week by Byrne Brothers Monuments.

The pedestal design was worked out in consultation with Alfred Gelfert, Jr., of New York, landscape artist.

The sculptor, John Massey Rhind, was born in Edinburgh. He came of a long line of distinguished Scottish artists.

Miss Louise Heron of the Hotel Stuyvesant, who has compiled historical data on the sculptor and on the three men represented in the statues, notes that Rhind, even as a small child, exhibited a precocious desire to model. In this he was encouraged by his father.

When a boy in his teens, Rhind became a student at the Royal Academy of Edinburgh, then later (Continued on Page 13, Col. 8)

Howell Drops Ice, It Snows, and It May Be Nothing

Weather Bureau Doesn't Exactly Say Rainman Not Cause, but Here's Story

New York, April 14 (AP)—The weather experts say it probably is just a coincidence, but here's what happened:

New York city's rainmaker made his first try at tipping over the clouds yesterday, and today, they were spilling snow and rain all over the northeast from New York city to Portland, Me.

"I wouldn't say definitely that he had nothing to do with it," said a Weather Bureau spokesman, "but I doubt it."

The spokesman conceded, however, that it was a little odd for snow to be falling in the middle of springtime. Today's temperatures also were abnormal—25.2 degrees at dawn—a record low for the date.

The weather expert said that the storm formed off the middle Atlantic coast early yesterday—several hundred miles east of the cloud-seeding tests—and that the storm now centered over the Massachusetts coastal region. It's moving slowly southward, he added.

"I wouldn't say the cloud-seeding had an effect on the particular snow in New York," the spokesman said. (Continued on Page 14, Col. 3)

Gentle Spring Grows Long, Cold Beard And Most of Nation Is Reported Disgusted

(By The Associated Press)

It's mid-April and spring, sweet, gentle, spring, is three weeks old, and acting like old man winter.

The season of light showers, soft winds, budding trees and flowers and green grass is way off the climatic beam over many parts of the country.

In the Midwest, it might as well be winter. The eastern states don't feel too hot about their brand of spring weather either. There's too much zing and sting in the air, much like the winter season variety.

There's not much, if any, spring fever in the belt hit by the unseasonable cold—from the northern plains, across the Great Lakes region and into the Middle and North Atlantic region. Some of the chilly air has seeped into southern states, too.

Snow is on the ground in many areas. Furnace fires are getting the same back-breaking attention as in midwinter. Kids are following the calendar and playing baseball dressed like ski-riders.

Snowplows remained necessary equipment in the Dakotas and sections of New England. The major league baseball teams moved out of the sunny and mild (in most places) south to their frosty home bases. They were hoping for warmer weather before the season's league opening games next Tuesday.

In Kansas City yesterday, with the mercury in the 40's, fans at the New York Giants-Cleveland exhibition game, started small fires to keep warm. Chicago's predicted high of 42 today prompted officials of the Cubs to call off their scheduled exhibition game today with the White Sox.

The freezing line hit into parts of the south with forecasts of readings of near 32 as far south as the Carolinas and Tennessee. The U. S. Weather Bureau said cold air from Canada now extends over the eastern two-thirds of the country except for Florida and southern Texas.

Temperatures were below freezing all day yesterday over much of the Great Lakes region, eastern Indiana, Ohio and the western parts of Pennsylvania and New York. The day's low was 2 below zero at Grand Forks, N. D. Many cities reported record low readings for the date. The high was 91 at Yuma, Ariz., with readings in the 80's along the Rio Grande valley and in Florida.

Snow in New England measured as much as eight inches in the Berkshires in western Massachusetts.

Dewey Hits At Selfish GOP Group

Governor Dewey Raps 'Free Enterprise' Excuse Employed by Some of Party

Backs Labor Right

Prefers Local Rule to Big Government for Freedom

Princeton, N. J., April 14 (AP)—Thomas E. Dewey put himself on the far side of the fence today away from any of the Republican party's super-conservative side.

The New York governor said his party's record already had been blemished by individuals whom he accused of hiding selfish motives behind a constant clamor for "free enterprise."

Dewey, who forsook the role of a defeated presidential candidate for that of a Republican elder statesman, concluded his Princeton University lecture series last night with some annoyed reproach of the "free enterprise" pleaders.

Dewey said the Republicans made up the party of individual freedom as opposed to the Democratic party of big movement. But he said the cause of individual freedom had not always been supported unselfishly by some Republicans.

Distorted Meaning

"When such men have shouted about 'free enterprise' they have not meant 'free enterprise' at all. They have been thinking of their own narrow interests..." the titular head of the Republican party told a university audience of some 1,000.

"From time to time, individual unrepresentative members of my party, seldom holding public office, have presumed to regard the rights of labor as inferior to the rights of property," Dewey said. But he insisted that "no Republican, president—from Abraham Lincoln to Herbert Hoover—ever endorsed so reactionary a position."

He said the G.O.P. could boast today of a long tradition of support of the rights of free labor.

Dewey's talk was scheduled as an academic analysis of the domestic policies of the country's two major political parties, and he was as ruthless with his own as he was with the opposition.

He said the choice was between the Democratic party of big government and the Republican way (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Four Arrested For Arson at Knaust Plant

The first arrests were made today in connection with the fire and vandalism at the Knaust Brothers, Inc., plant at Binnewater on March 28.

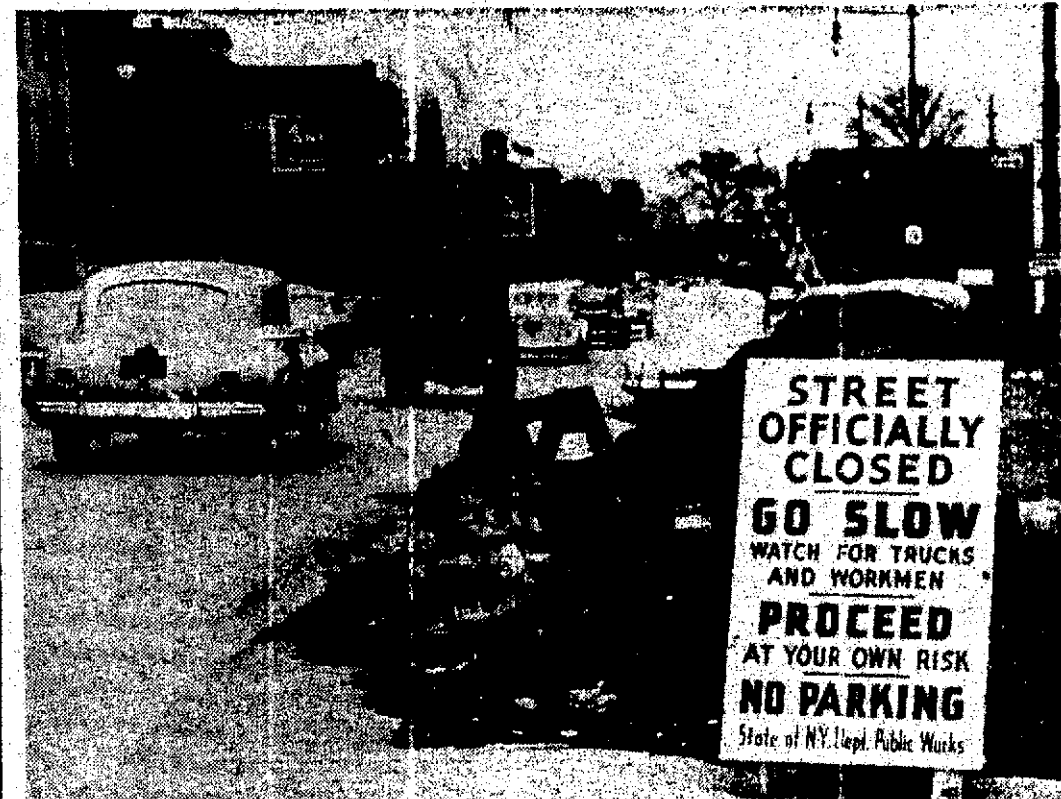

Picked up on bench warrants after an Ulster county grand jury this morning returned sealed indictments charging them each with third degree arson and malicious mischief, were:

George Ernest Federal, 20, of 38 York street; John C. Gardner, 96 Broad street; and Vincent Anthony Macarelli, 34, of 25 North street, all of Catskill, and Ed-

County Palsy Clinic To Be Set Up in City

10 Sealed Writs Given to Elsworth

Grand Jury Gives No Open Bills; Bench Warrants to Be Issued

Ten sealed indictments were returned this morning at 10 o'clock by the grand jury which reported to Supreme Court Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth. There were no additional open bills and no dismissals.

All 10 of the sealed indictments were transferred to County Court for further disposition on motion of District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn. Bench warrants will be issued for the defendants named in the bills of indictment.

After receiving the report of the grand jury Justice Elsworth discharged the jurors with the thanks of the court. The grand jury is that summoned for attendance upon the February-March term of Supreme Court.

Since making his original report the grand jury has been held in session, subject to the call of District Attorney Bruhn, and on Tuesday the grand jury met and considered additional matters with the result the ten true bills were presented today.

When the grand jury was retained in session, subject to the call of the district attorney, it was stated this action had been taken because of the situation which existed in this county because of a strike among employees of the Knaust Brothers mushroom plants. Since then there have been two fires at mushroom plants which enforcement officials have stated gave appearance of having been of incendiary origin. Earlier this week four men were arrested and charged with arson in connection with a fire at a Columbia county plant of the Knaust firm.

They are now under bail for a hearing before Justice of the Peace Morrisfield at Gloversville on April 18. A second fire was at the Binnewater plant of the Knaust company on March 28, when a store room was destroyed with a loss estimated at $15,000. The Columbia county fire destroyed a pump house at Lintlithgow with a loss of $2,500.

Ritchie Will Guide Organization; Its Location Is Not Certain

Dr. Henry L. Bibby announced last night that a clinic would be established in Kingston in the late summer or early fall to aid Ulster county's children and adults afflicted by cerebral palsy, the tragic crippling condition which usually strikes before or during birth.

Speaking at an open meeting in the M.J.M. school of the Ulster County Cerebral Palsy Association, of which he is president, Dr. Bibby said establishment of the clinic would require help from the community, financial and otherwise.

Dr. Saul Ritchie will be medical director of the clinic, Dr. Bibby said, and the staff will include therapists of various types. Location of the clinic has not yet been decided.

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk, addressing the same meeting, said he felt sure the community "would not let this organization down."

Dr. Bibby said there were an estimated 135 cases of cerebral palsy in Ulster county, 22 of them known to be children. Many cases are unreported, he said, because "parents are often ashamed and frustrated, and cases are hidden; as tuberculosis cases once were."

Greater Than Polio

Dr. Bibby said the need for help for cerebral palsied children was greater than the need of polio cases, because three times (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Kelly, Vredenburg Are Called to Stand At Lutzel Trial

Coroner, Sheriff's Aide Testify in Court as Murder Case Is Heard

Coroner Ernest A. Kelly and County Investigator Clayton W. Vredenburg were called by the prosecution this morning at the Theodore Lutzel murder trial. Dr. J. Spottiswood Taylor, director of the Kingston Laboratory, who presided at the autopsy which was performed upon the body of Ruth S. Bergemann at the Moylan Funeral parlors in Rosendale, will be called at the afternoon session.

Coroner Kelly identified the articles of clothing which were worn by Ruth S. Bergemann at the time of her death last November 27 and which he said were removed from the body and turned over to the district attorney. He also identified a bullet which was found in the body of deceased at the time of the autopsy and which he turned over to the county investigator.

A copy of the death certificate which Coroner Kelly signed was presented. Coroner Kelly said he was present at the autopsy performed by Drs. Taylor and Dr. Eugene Galvin.

Following completion of the autopsy a verdict of "homicide by pistol shot wound" was arrived at by Coroner Kelly and that cause was placed on the death certificate.

John Bonomi, counsel for Lutzel, questioned Coroner Kelly at some length as to the statement on the certificate which was to the effect that there was a pistol "wound." Bonomi asked whether or not this should not have been (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Group Will Meet Soon On Matter

Senator George Feels Nothing Would Be Gained by Citing Anyone

Letter Is Quoted

Alleged Lattimore Note Tells of Feeling About Chinese

Washington, April 14 (AP)—Senator George (D-Ga.) said today it would be a waste of time for Congress to start contempt action against Federal officials who ignored Senate subpoenas to turn loose government loyalty files.

The subpoenas were issued by the Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee investigating the charges of Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) that the State Department is harboring Communists and Red sympathizers.

President Truman instructed Secretary of State Acheson, Attorney General McGrath and the Civil Service Commission to shelve the subpoenas. He said release of the files would cripple the FBI, smear innocent people and wreck the federal loyalty program.

Earlier this week the subcommittee formally notified the full Foreign Relations Committee of Mr. Truman's action. What to do next will be discussed at a meeting of the larger group next Tuesday.

George, a member of the full committee, told reporters: "Nothing would be gained by citing anyone for contempt. I do not think it would be worthwhile to pursue the matter."

George predicted that Mr. Truman's decision would be backed up in any court test.

Says Proof in Files

McCarthy has contended all along that proof of his charges can be found in the secret files of the F.B.I. and other government agencies.

Meanwhile, New York Importer Alfred Kohlberg told reporters more about how he handled material to McCarthy in the Owen Lattimore case.

McCarthy has accused Lattimore, of being Russia's top spy in the United States. McCarthy also has said that former Communist Louis Budenz will testify next Thursday that he knew Lattimore to be a member of the Communist party.

Lattimore has flatly denied Mc-

Women to Begin School Patrol Jobs

Mayor Says Work Starts Monday at Perilous Intersections

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk announced today that women hired for school patrol as provided for in his 1950 budget will start on duty Monday morning.

The move is aimed at relieving regular patrolmen from traffic duty at dangerous intersections near several schools, and will allow the officers full time for general duties.

The first four school patrol women to go on duty will be stationed at Foxhall avenue and Wynton Place for School No. 5; Wards and Davenport streets, St. Peter's School; Livingston street, Hartsbrook and Delaware avenues, for the Livingston Street School; and Third avenue and Delaware avenue for the Polish Parochial School.

Mayor Newkirk included $4,200 in the 1950 budget for the new patrol system, stressing that the project could help increase the efficiency of the police department. His comment on the budget entry also stressed his belief that the women would "make excellent guardians of our children."

Employed on a part-time basis, the school patrol women will work during the hours when the children enter school in the morning, when they leave and re-enter during the noon hour and at the close of school in the afternoon. They will wear special belts to indicate they are on official duty.

Indochina Will Be Given $15,000,000 in Arms Help

Washington, April 14 (AP)—

The United States is putting together a $15,000,000 arms aid package for Communist-threatened Indo-China.

The aid is expected to be made up largely of cargo planes, trucks and medical supplies. Diplomatic authorities reported that these items top the lists of supplies urgently needed by the French-led forces fighting the Communist guerrillas of Ho Chi Minh.

Preliminary shipments of a few special items may start within a month. And if the State Department has its way, deliveries will be labeled in effect "for Indo-China" rather than "to France for Indo-China."

With the French being pressed to give the three new states of Indo-China some voice in the disposition of U. S. military and economic assistance, officials hope for at least a gesture underscoring the American policy of helping Asiatic peoples toward independence.

Ambassador-at-large Philip C. Jessup stressed this policy in a broadcast report last night on his recent fact-finding tour to the Far East.

"The United States," he said, "believes that every people has the right to be independent, to govern itself, and to work out its problems in its own way."

Free peoples who are determined to maintain their independence, he added, "are entitled to military aid which will help them remain free." This, said Jessup, is "not as big a job as it may sound."

What they need most, he said, is not large amounts of military material but key bits of equipment, like new rifles for their constabulary, or communications equipment.

Ulster to Receive $1,095,190 in Aid For Education

Ulster county's share in state aid for education under schedule of the April 15 payment is $1,095,190.94, State Comptroller Frank C. Moore announced today.

Of this the Kingston share is $401,629.08, that for supervisory districts, $617,542.88, and for Saugerties, $76,019.18.

The April distribution is a record payment of $114,201,645.26 in aid for education throughout the state, the comptroller said.

New York city is receiving $40,567,488.19. Thirty other so-called deferred payment cities are receiving a total of $12,765,927.68 while the "regular" cities and villages are receiving a total of $22,297,443.68 and the supervisory districts, $38,570,788.71.

This appropriation to the deferred payment cities represents one-half the education aid they are receiving on the basis of statistics for the 1948-49 school year. In January, this group of cities received the first quarter of this aid. The balance will be paid by the state in September.

Local Death Record

Funeral services for Gilbert B. Wagner of Tilton were held from the Henry J. Bruck Funeral Home, 327 Main street, Rosendale, Wednesday at 10 a. m. The Rev. Albert H. Shultis of the Rosendale Reformed Church officiated. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Bronx, where the Rev. Mr. Shultis gave the committal.

The funeral of Mrs. Lillia Britt, wife of the late Jonathan Britt, who died April 10, was held from the residence, 697 Broadway, Thursday, at 2 p. m. The Rev. William R. Peckham, pastor of the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, assisted by the Rev. Howard McGrath, of Poughkeepsie, conducted the service. Burial was in Willwyck Cemetery.

Mrs. Rita M. Keene Storm of Fort Dix, N. J., died Thursday following an illness of six months. She was the wife of Staff Sergeant Kenneth W. Storm of the United States Air Force. Besides her husband, she is survived by three sons, Bernard, Kenneth and William, and a daughter, Jeanette Storm. The funeral will be held from the Henry J. Bruck Funeral Home, 27 Smith avenue, Monday, at 2 p. m. Burial will be in Montrose cemetery. Friends may call any time from Saturday afternoon on.

Mrs. Esther Barth Hilderbrandt of 45 Levan street died in this city Thursday evening. Mrs. Hilderbrandt had been a resident of this city for the greater part of her life, a charter member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, and a member of Kingston Lodge 155, O.E.S. Mrs. Hilderbrandt was the wife of the late Frederick Hilderbrandt and is survived by one brother, John J. Barth of this city. Friends may call at the W. N. Conner Funeral Home, 296 Fair street any time after 7 p. m. Saturday evening. Funeral arrangements later.

Mrs. Angela Piekenbrock of Box 3, Boulevard died early today following a brief illness. She was born in Germany and came to this country at an early age. Before moving to this country, she lived in New York. Until shortly before her death, she was employed by Thompson's Laundry. She is survived by her husband, Ellmar Piekenbrock; two brothers and two sisters in Germany and a niece, Eleanor Piekenbrock of New York. The funeral will be held from the Jensen and Deegan Funeral Home, 15 Downs street Monday at 9:30 a. m. and 9 a. m. from St. Peter's Church where a requiem Mass will be offered for the repose of her soul. Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday and Sunday between 2 and 5 and 7 to 9 p. m.

Peter Gumaer of 73 Brewster street died Thursday at his home following a brief illness. He was born in New Salem but had resided in this city practically his entire life. A carpenter by trade, he worked for many years as a foreman for the Cornell Company until his retirement a short time ago. His wife, the former Anna B. Cornell Gumaer, died several years ago. He is survived by a daughter, Miss Mayme Gumaer, located at the M.J.M. School. Relatives and friends may call at the residence any time. The funeral will be held from the late home Monday at 9:30 a. m. and at St. Mary's Church at 10 a. m. when a solemn high Mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of his soul. Burial will take place in the family plot in Montrose cemetery.

The funeral of Ellen Linahan was held Thursday at 9 a. m. from the James M. Murphy Funeral Home and at 9:15 a. m. at St. Mary's Church where a high Mass of requiem was offered by the Rev. Edward J. Farrelly with the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Martin J. Drury, P.R.V.F. in the chancel. Responses to the Mass were sung by the children's choir under the direction of Theodore Riccobono, organist. Many relatives and friends assisted at the requiem. Scores of acquaintances called while the body lay in state at the funeral home to offer sympathy to the bereaved. Monsignor Drury visited the home and recited prayers for the dead. Wednesday night Father Farrelly called and assisted by members of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association and others present recited the Rosary. Acting as bearers were members of the deceased. Burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery where Father Farrelly gave the final blessing.

The Cape Hatteras lighthouse was mariners of Diamond Shoals, off the North Carolina coast.

Kelly, Vredenburg

"wounds" since it was stated there were two wounds on the body.

Coroner Kelly replied that the certificate stated "pistol shot wound" but below there was reference to a second bullet wound. He said the first statement was not an error but it could have stated "wounds."

Inquiry was made as to when the autopsy report had been filed with the coroner and whether it had been within the 10-days prescribed by law. Kelly said he was not sure when the report was filed but said it was not within the 10-day period.

Investigator Called

County Investigator Vredenburg testified he had been notified of the High Falls shooting on November 27 and in company with Deputy Joseph Gentile he had gone to the scene. They arrived at 3:20 a. m. on Sunday morning and found a body lying in the center of the intersection near the post office road. He gave measurements which indicated the body was in the center of the road. He told of the body being taken to the Moylan Funeral Home in Rosendale where the autopsy was later performed and where he took a series of photographs of the body indicating the two bullet wounds on the head. He identified a series of photographs. One showed the bullet wound over the right eye and also the bullet wound back of the right ear. The point of egress of one of the bullets was also shown and there were several pictures taken from different positions showing the wounds.

An inspection of the room occupied by Lutzel disclosed a box in which nine .38 calibre cartridges were found. It is the contention of the authorities that Ruth S. Bergemann was shot by a gun using .38 calibre bullets. In the box offered at the trial were eight cartridges and the witness said one had been turned over for inspection and examination, when he was questioned by Bonomi whether one had been used for experimenting.

Cross examination of Vredenburg was brief, only four questions being asked. He stated on cross examination that he had not examined the body of Ruth S. Bergemann at the scene in High Falls prior to its being moved to the funeral home. He said there was a bullet hole below the right ear and that there were dark marks around the wound which were called powder marks. He said he had not examined the point of exit of one of the bullets.

Each of the photographs offered in evidence were described by the witness as to marks. Some of them indicated by a metal pointer the direction the bullet had taken in the body as indicated by Dr. Taylor.

Cross was taken until 2 o'clock. There will be no court Saturday. All persons under 16 years of age are being excluded from the court room on orders of the court.

Meanwhile the jurors who are being retained under custody of the sheriff and court officers until the trial is finally concluded are making plans to attend church Sunday.

Five additional witnesses were called by District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn Thursday afternoon in the first degree murder trial of Theodore Lutzel at the county court house.

Additional testimony was received in regard to the movements of Lutzel and the deceased, Ruth S. Bergemann, on the night before the alleged murder.

Kenneth R. Post, who at the time was manager of the Valley Inn at Rosendale, testified that he was tending bar the night of November 26, 1949, and that Miss Bergemann and Lutzel came in together sometime between 10:15 and 10:30 p. m. and left together about 11:50 or 11:55 p. m.

Earlier testimony by Edward Keast, bartender at The Well in Rosendale, indicated that the pair had been in that place sometime between 9:30 and 10:30 p. m. and that they returned about 12:30 a. m. Sunday. Stephen W. Elivo, Jr., proprietor of The Chalet in the same village testified earlier that he saw the pair in his place about midnight or 12:30 that night.

Six or Seven Drinks

Post testified on direct examination Thursday afternoon that he served Lutzel and Miss Bergemann "six or seven drinks" each, but that neither appeared to be intoxicated. He said he did not hear any particular conversation between them.

Defense Attorney John Bonomi asked Post on cross-examination whether Lutzel and Miss Bergemann seemed to him to be conversing "in a friendly and amiable manner." Post replied, "That's right."

Other testimony Thursday afternoon centered about the finding of Miss Bergemann's body early Sunday morning, November 27.

Mrs. Pearl E. Jansen, wife of Sterling S. Jansen, related the incidents concerning the discovery of the body. She was riding in an automobile with her husband and they appear to be the first persons to have found the body. Sterling Jansen gave his testimony earlier in the trial.

Went to Parents' Home

After she had testified that she and her husband went to the home of Miss Bergemann's parents following discovery of the body and notification of the sheriff's office, Bonomi asked on cross-examination whether Theodore Lutzel's name entered the conversation at that place.

Mrs. Jansen replied that Bergemann had said "I wonder if she was with Teddy."

Bonomi asked, "Did he seem bitter?" Mrs. Jansen replied that he did not.

Other testimony was received from Alfred Slater and John R. Crespinio, the two deputy sheriffs who were first to arrive on the scene after the sheriff's office was notified, and from Arthur H. Brown, jailer at the sheriff's office who took photographs of the of local rule and individual freedom. "Naturally," he said, "I prefer the Republican approach."

Dewey said the Democrats had more than their share of the faults, basically, he said, it was because they believed that only the federal government could solve the people's problems and only with federal funds, federal personnel and federal controls.

Dewey said the Republicans agreed with the Democrats on the need for numerous basic services that a government should provide for its people.

Calls for Safer Routes

"I doubt if the most conservative Republican would suggest abandonment of such concepts as unemployment insurance, collective bargaining, bank deposit insurance, regulation of security exchanges and old age and survivors insurance," he said.

But the difference between the two parties, he said, lay in their respective approach to the solution of the assorted problems.

"There are many routes to each objective," Dewey said. "The true liberal will seek every good social objective by the safer route, even though it may be harder or slower."

Dewey said the Republicans agreed that government should have a part in supporting agriculture and guiding labor. But he was firmly opposed to any government plan for compulsory health insurance. He spent almost a third of his 80-minute talk assailing socialized medicine as a financial and medical impossibility.

Dewey said the Republican party thought that a government ought to exert its influence on the economy mainly through sound monetary and fiscal policies with no direct controls on prices, wages or investments. Such controls, he said, were "the gadgetry of totalitarianism."

In a question-and-answer exchange later, Dewey was asked if he might run for president again a third time. He laughed and turned to his last post-election disclaimer and said he had not changed his mind.

Fines Van Steenburgh For Dumping Garbage

Abraham Van Steenburgh of 25 Adams street, Kingston, was arrested Thursday by County Identification Officer Leonard Belmont on a charge of violation of ordinance No. 1 of the town of Ulster, a charge of having dumped garbage along a public highway.

'Belmont charged that Van Steenburgh had dumped garbage along Route 213 in Edenville Tuesday night. Taken before Justice of the Peace Percy Bush, Van Steenburgh paid a fine of $5 and was given a warning. Judge Bush stated that the fine had been a nominal one but that in the future the fines imposed will become more severe.

4-H Day at K.H.S.

Four-H Club members from all sections of the county will meet at Kingston High School Saturday for the annual demonstration day observance. There will be 33 clothing demonstrations, 26 foods demonstrations and 15 agricultural demonstrations. Events start at 9 a. m. and will last through the afternoon. Awards will be made for the best demonstrations and blue ribbon winners will be eligible to compete in a later District Demonstration Day.

Kiwanis Guests

Fred Starek of Callicoon, Kiwanis district governor, paid an official visit to the Kingston Kiwanis Club at a regular meeting at the Governor Clinton Hotel Thursday noon. Also on the program were two Kerhonkson 4-H Club members, Joan Ortman and Samuel Devine, who gave a report on National Farm and Home Week sessions at Ithaca which they attended. They were introduced by Edmund Bower, county 4-H Club agent.

Miron Calls Twice

Firemen were called twice to check a fire threat caused by a maladjustment in an oil heating unit at Miron Building Products Co., Inc., 32 East Strand. The first call was at 6 p. m. yesterday and the second at 10:43 a. m. today. No damage resulted.

Smith and Lang Autos Collide in Hurley

Automobiles driven by Harold J. Smith, 51, of R.F.D. 3, Kingston, and Charles Lang, 24, of Mt. Marion, collided at the intersection of Route 209, Zandhoeck road and Millbrook avenue in Hurley at 3:30 p. m. Thursday, the sheriff's office reported.

Smith told a deputy sheriff that he was turning off Route 209 into Millbrook avenue when his car was struck in the rear by Lang's automobile.

The grille, right front fender, head light and bumper of the Lang automobile were damaged and its wheels knocked out of alignment; and the right rear fender and bumper of the Smith car were damaged, according to a report filed by Deputy Sheriff Arthur B. Smith, who investigated. No injuries or arrests were reported.

Senate May . . .

Carthy's accusations and has sworn he never has been a Communist.

When he testified, Lattimore said he suspected that Kohlberg had been furnishing material which McCarthy was using against him (Lattimore). Kohlberg later acknowledged it, but he said he never had called Lattimore a spy or a Communist.

He said he told McCarthy that Lattimore "associated with Communists and followed a Communist line."

Included Letter

Kohlberg told newsmen who spotted him at the capitol that the data he gave McCarthy included a letter which Lattimore wrote in 1943 to Joseph Barnes, then deputy director of the Office of War Information. Lattimore at the time was also a deputy director of O.W.I.

McCarthy said in a Senate speech on March 30 that the letter showed Lattimore was trying to get rid of Chinese in O.W.I. who were loyal to Chiang Kai-shek. Lattimore denied that on the witness stand, but said he did write the letter.

Kohlberg said the Lattimore-Barnes letter came to him in the mail from an anonymous source about five years ago. He said he never had used it because he was not sure it actually had been written by Lattimore.

Kohlberg, in reply to questions, said he came to Washington from New York Wednesday night and had seen McCarthy briefly then. He said he had turned no more material over to the Wisconsin senator.

Kohlberg said he is very well acquainted with Budenz, whom McCarthy is counting on to back up his charges against Lattimore.

Kohlberg declined to go into any detail about the reason for his visit to the capitol. He said he was calling on "Senate friends."

Four Arrested . . .

ward L. Scott, 258 Mansion street, Coxsack.

The four were taken into custody at noon today by the Greene county sheriff's office and were to be turned over to the Ulster county sheriff's office this afternoon.

The fire, which destroyed the frame packing house within the Knaut Binnewater cave near Rosendale, damaged equipment and did potential damage to mushrooms, has been under investigation by the Ulster county sheriff's office. The police and District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn since it occurred early the morning of March 28. The firm estimated material damage of the fire at $15,000 and potential damage to mushrooms at between $300,000 and $700,000.

Facts Are Given

District Attorney Bruhn presented the facts gathered in the investigation to the grand jury, which at 10 a. m. Friday returned 10 sealed indictments.

Cooperating with the district attorney in the investigation were Sheriff George C. Smith, County Investigator Clayton Vredenburg and Identification Officer Leonard Belmont of Ulster county and Sheriff Milton Bailey and Under-Sheriff Clarence Palmer of Greene county.

Strife Smith also pointed out that his entire staff had a part in that they worked many hours overtime to permit those directly concerned in the investigation to be free of other duties.

State police B.C.I. men also conducted an investigation.

Charges against the four men are felonies on both counts the sheriff's office said, because the amount of property damage specified in the charge allegedly exceeds $250.

Of the four men arrested today, two of them, George Federal and Vincent Macarelli, were arrested by Claverack troopers on April 12 on third degree arson charges in connection with a fire at the Knaut pump house near Lindlough on March 31. They were scheduled for hearing on that charge on April 18 in a justice of the peace court in Columbia county.

County Palsy . . .

as many children are crippled by cerebral palsy as by infantile paralysis.

"The cerebral palsy child does not possess the dramatic appeal of the child with infantile paralysis," he said. "The cerebral palsy child does not present an appealing picture. He is awkward, he can't control his motions, he makes grimaces, and he often appears to be mentally deficient. There is no March of Dimes to help cerebral palsy cases. They have been called the forgotten half million."

Treatment of the condition and rehabilitation of the persons afflicted is a long, drawn-out affair, so expensive that it is completely out of reach of most parents of cerebral palsied children.

The meeting was attended by representatives of women's clubs and other social and civic organizations, who were urged to "carry the story of cerebral palsy back to their organizations and their friends" to aid in the educational program which is essential before the shame and superstition surrounding the condition can be conquered.

Dr. Saul Ritchie, president of the Ulster County Association, told the meeting of the medical aspects of cerebral palsy, and why the condition was so difficult to treat.

Damages Brain Tissues

The condition is caused by damage to brain tissues, or the failure of certain portions of brain tissues to develop properly, he said. The damage occurs prenatally, or during birth when labor is difficult (with or without forceps), or after birth, as the result of certain infectious diseases or head injuries.

Cerebral palsy cases can be broken down into five different types, he declared, and the emotional make-up of each type is different—another factor which must be taken into consideration in treatment.

Proper treatment requires a psychiatrist, a pediatrician, and orthopedist, a physiotherapist, a speech therapist and an occupational therapist, he said.

He said not every case could be helped, but that at least three out of seven would respond well to treatment.

The children are first taught to speak, Dr. Ritchie said, and "it takes the patience of a saint to teach them." And then they are taught to use their hands. Walking is the last step of the training.

Dr. Robert Broad, Ulster County Health Commissioner, said there were six cases of cerebral palsy for every 1,000 live births, and 150 cases per 100,000 population.

Discusses Subsidies

He said it had only been in the past few years that Health Departments throughout the nation had become very much interested in the condition, and he discussed state subsidies for clinics and for the training of therapists.

He said evaluation clinics had been held in Ulster county to determine whether there were sufficient patients to warrant the establishment of a clinic, and it was found that there were. The clinic here will receive some state aid.

Dr. Broad stressed the emotional and social problems of the cerebral palsied person, and said he believed that the clinic would provide place where afflicted children could mingle with and compete with similarly afflicted children, and that this would be "of very great value in their therapy."

He said the children's treatment should be spoken of as "habilitation," not "rehabilitation," as the simplest movements are unknown to them, and must be taught.

Other Moves Mentioned

Two other recent moves i Senate chamber also testi Barkley's influence:

1 Ignoring Senate tradition named a 13-senator small business committee without 1 pointing members, both Democrats and Republicans, who formerly served on this group and without consulting Republican leaders. Senator Tamm, this high-handed procedure.

2 He also by-passed procedure by naming senators who confer with House men on displaced persons legislation. Usually a vice president as the last handed to him but 1 by announced that he would accept the list of Senator Carran (D-New), judiciary committee chairman. The Senate backed up Barkley and he set his own list of five senators of whom had supported a opposed by McCarran.

Out of the Senate, Barkley much the same as ever—atting parties with his bride, v ing Democratic audiences' funny stories, crowning "j ceases," etc. on April 27, he crown his own step-daughter, Hadley, as queen of the Sh doah apple blossom festival Virginia.

Small Cities Given Power On Taxes Under Law Extension

Albany, N. Y., April 14 (AP)—The state's small cities were empowered today to impose local "nuisance" taxes, effective immediately.

Governor Dewey signed a bill extending his permissive local tax law, adopted in 1947. Its nine-non-property taxes, which include a retail sales levy, have been open only to cities of 25,000 or more population, and to counties.

Thirty-nine smaller cities fall under the amendment.

Woman Gets Jail For Drunk Driving

Bridgeport, Conn., April 14 (AP)—A judge's campaign to jail motorists convicted of drunken driving has landed a woman in a cell.

Mrs. Mary P. Cole, 39, of 80 Winfield street, East Norwalk, burst into tears when she was sentenced to serve a three-day term. Deputy sheriffs had to assist her from the courtroom.

The sentence was imposed by Judge John Clark Fitzgerald after a Common Pleas Court jury returned a guilty verdict against her on a charge of operating under the influence of liquor.

Mrs. Cole was the first woman to face Judge Fitzgerald since he announced his jail-for-drunk drivers policy at the opening of the criminal term April 4. He had previously imposed short terms on three men.

She had appealed from a $100 fine imposed in the Norwalk City Court after her arrest on the drunken driving charge last February 18.

Her lawyer, Joseph Davidson, pleaded that she be spared a jail term, but Judge Fitzgerald said: "Today men and women stand equal. They have the same voting rights and they are equal in the business world and socially. Before the criminal bar the court should not necessarily draw a distinction between a woman defendant and a man."

Mrs. Cole's son, Richard, and his wife of day, Geraldine, were in the courtroom when the sentence was imposed. The elder Mrs. Cole had been unable to attend their wedding Wednesday because her trial was in progress. The young couple had delayed starting their wedding trip in order to testify in her defense.

Insurance Papers At Vet's Office

It was announced at the office of the Veterans Administration, 288 Fair street today that there are available a limited number of applications for the National Service Life Insurance dividend for those who believe they may be entitled to this dividend because of relationship to a deceased veteran who at the time of his death had allowed his government insurance to lapse.

F. William Sheehan of the local office pointed out that this application should not be confused with the payment of the special dividend to beneficiaries of policy holders whose policies were in effect at the time of the death of the serviceman. Such dividends, it was pointed out, will be automatically paid. The applications just received are for those who believe they may possibly be entitled to this dividend and in whose case V.A. does not know of the death of the former serviceman. Once the application is received by the V.A. then a determination will be made as to whom shall receive the insurance dividend.

Back From Europe, On Relief Again

New York, April 14 (AP)—An investigation was being made today of the case of two old-maid sisters who went off city relief to take a trip to Europe, and then went back on relief as soon as they returned.

The pair now is drawing about $2.75 per day to pay for food, and a kitchen-equipped $14.70-a-week room in a midtown hotel.

Welfare Commissioner Raymond Hilliard says he "doesn't think the sisters are 'doing very riotous living at less than $3 a day,' but that the Welfare Department is looking into the matter anyway."

The department gave this account of the sisters' European tour: last September, they decided to go to Europe for their health, and with the hopes of finding a job. They sold their furniture, borrowed $140 from a relative, and with $100 earned by making and selling handkerchiefs, paid passage on the liner America. Their relief payments here were stopped.

In Paris, they picked up a little money selling their home-made handkerchiefs in front of the U. S. Embassy. Later they went to Switzerland where they went broke. They asked that New York city relief checks be forwarded to them. The request was denied.

The sisters then appealed to the State Department, which paid their way home. They landed March 30, and soon thereafter, got back on city relief rolls.

The sisters, identified by the department as Emily Vauter, 71, and her sister, Atille, 64, were not available for comment.

Would Rejoin Husband For Children's Sake

New York, April 14 (AP)—Karen Elizabeth Thiele testified in her separation action against Roger Harvey Thiele, restaurateur, yesterday that she and her husband had disagreed often but "I am ready to go back to him for the sake of my children."

Mrs. Thiele, 27, of 320 East 72nd street, who seeks $400 a week alimony and the custody of Karen, seven, and Christopher, three, testified before Supreme Court Justice Irving L. Levey that when she returned to North Tarrytown, N. Y., in April, 1948, after a three-month trip to California, she found the locks of all doors changed and was unable to get into their house.

Her husband, 30, of North Tarrytown, "has not permitted me to live with him since," she said. She declared, "Roger and I have had a lot of disagreements. I think it is up to the two of us to work them out. I am ready to go back to him for the sake of my children."

Thiele in a countersuit alleges that his wife abandoned him in January, 1948, and that on November 23, 1948, she took the children from his home and went with them to the British Indies.

Rob Chinamen, Lock Five in Large Icebox

New York, April 14 (AP)—Two gunmen escaped with $355 early today after assaulting two employees of a Chinese restaurant and herding them and five other persons into an icebox.

Police said the two bandits took $75 from Tom Nam, 46, cashier at the Hon Young restaurant, 2375 Broadway in upper Manhattan, and then seized $250 from the cashier's register.

When Nam resisted, police said, one of the gunmen struck him over the head.

The pair then took $30 and a wristwatch from Quam Yucheng, 32, the headwaiter, also hitting him over the head to subdue him. The gunmen then ordered Yucheng, Nam and five others into a large icebox, and fled.

"Wish I could see this NEWSPAPER in 50 years"

If you had before you a copy of your local newspaper as it appeared in the year 1900 and compared it with this issue of today, you would be startled by the changes that can take place in 50 years even in some pieces of paper covered with black ink that are known as newspapers.

Type faces have changed in many instances. Engravings in line and half-tone have improved so that they have influenced radical changes in advertising and general newspaper make-up.

Color is creeping into many of the larger metropolitan papers. Electronics are speeding transmittal of news and illustration and necessitating vast changes in reproduction processes.

"Wish I could see this newspaper in 50 years."

Waitress Found Killed in West

San Jose, Calif., April 14 (AP)—A redheaded waitress was found savagely bulged yesterday, clothing of small children was wrapped around her battered head.

The body of Mrs. Helen May Piper, 27, mother of three, was draped over a fallen tree at the bottom of a 25-foot bluff.

A brother in law, Hubert McAttee, said he was employed at his small cafe in nearby Mountain View and resided in a trailer there.

A cook, Mrs. Mary Carver, said the waitress came to work at midnight Wednesday, had a telephone argument with someone and left.

Sheriff Howard Hornbuckle questioned Mrs. Piper's estranged husband, Henry, 26. There were no arrests.

The victims, children are Donna 11, Claude, 9, and Suzie 3, the former two by a previous marriage.

In 1948, steel mills made about one million tons of nails.

BABSON on BUSINESS

New York, City April 14—I like to see men and women have a little business of their own. If you can keep out of debt, it gives security and health. You have no fear of being "fired" or laid off on account of mistakes of the management. If your little business turns out not to be good, it then will be your fault, and not your employer's fault. You know that some of your competitors always do well.

What the Bible Teaches
Whether or not this is the time for a young man to leave a good job and go into business for himself, is debatable. The Good Book says there is a time for everything (Read Ecclesiastes 3:1 to 8), which includes a time to buy and a time to sell. God gives us a brain to use. Let us not try to buck His law of Supply and Demand.

This does not mean that we should not push forward. We all should help the world's great problem of how to provide the needs of all in the midst of plenty. So long as any able person willing to work is unemployed while the government is dumping potatoes into the sea, there should be opportunities for shopkeepers and salesmen to bring these loose ends together. This is the kind of "socialism" and "planned economy" in which everyone should believe.

What Statistics Teach
To perform the above service requires character, brains, industry and some capital. Statistics indicate that a large number of those who have gone into business for themselves since World War II must have lacked one or more of these requirements. I say this because 60,000 fewer firms are operating today than a year ago. It is estimated that today there are 200,000 fewer concerns—mostly among the small retailers, service operators, etc.—than in 1946. That this is true, in spite of the increased population and the fact that there is more money about than ever before, indicates something is wrong.

The above is not only a disappointment to nearly a million people, including employees but to the owners of a large number of vacant stores, unused plants, idle trucks; all of which are the result of these failures. Those who have been forced out of business are, moreover, both disappointed and perhaps bitter. They claim America should not permit such sad results in the world's best country.

Failures on the Increase
Every month my statistical experts compile for me comparative figures on over thirty basic business barometers. In my forty years of studying business conditions I have always said the most significant figure is that for Business Failures. Heretofore, a very low failure figure has indicated excellent present business conditions; but such figures usually forecast that business troubles are coming.

With double the national income, failures have during the past ten years actually been less than before 1940. But at last we see a change for the worse. The greatest increase in bankruptcies is in the retail store field where there has been an increase in failures of 22 per cent. In the case of manufacturing this figure is 9.4 per cent; while in mining, farming, etc., there are 5.4 per cent more failures. Although the failures in the retail field show the greatest increase, yet enough new firms come into being so that the total is now only 2 per cent less than at the peak.

What Statistics Show
As a result of all the above 45 per cent fewer new concerns were incorporated in 1946 than in 1945. The number of independent concerns are now about 3,900,000 compared with nearly 4,000,000 in 1946. Yet, there now remain about 18 per cent more concerns in business than in 1939. The present failures average about 200 a week—compared with 100 a week in 1948. Further details will be sent freely on request by the world famous authorities, Dun & Bradstreet in New York City.

There is one cheering feature to these figures. The bankruptcies were not all among young G.I.'s. In fact, 70 per cent of them were of old concerns which had been dying of dry rot for many years. With age comes poor health and a loss of energy. Young men have this energy which older ones lack. This is worth more than capital or customers. Hence, no young people should be discouraged by the above figures on failures. But I do say that if you now have a good job, hold it and make the most of the opportunity it gives you to learn. This is not the time to start in business for yourself.

Grammar Failure Hits Senior Class In Iowa School

Ottumwa, Ia., April 14 (AP)—Because they don't know their English grammar as well as they should, 21 Ottumwa High School seniors probably won't get diplomas this spring.

What's more, it's the school board sent representatives to ask Ottumwa graduates now attending college if their high school learning had served them in good stead.

"We just don't know our English," the students reported.

When Supt. Frank W. Douma reported these findings to the school board, the board members nodded and remarked: "Just what we've been suspecting all along."

Then came the order at mid-year to drill the high school juniors and seniors in the English language—on basic 8th and 9th grade grammar.

Douma asked the board if it wanted to relax the rule on behalf of those hapless students caught in the iron-jawed trap of syntax. "No," chorused the board. "Eighth graders should be able to pass this work."

"It just goes to show how badly they need this basic English," board president, Gerald W. Loerke asserted.

Douma suggested to board members that they may be hearing from parents of the young hopefuls who won't get sheepskins. But the board said it would be shirking its duty if it turned students into the world without a good knowledge of basic grammar.

U. S. Ejects 10 Members Of Military Personnel

Warsaw, Poland, April 14 (AP)—The United States embassy today sent 10 of its military staff personnel out of the country in accordance with a demand by the Polish government.

Those leaving are: Maj. Lawrence N. McNally, air attaché's staff (home address not certain).

Lt. Col. Karl L. Scherer, military attaché's office, Washington, D. C.

Capt. Nicholas D. Rudziak, Boston, Mass., military attaché's office.

Capt. Donald Brazeau, Lakeville, Conn., air attaché's staff.

Enlisted personnel: Charles Shatsford (rank unavailable), Gloucester, Mass.

Staff Sgt. Russell W. Guelberg, Los Angeles, Calif.

Yeoman Stephen G. Kmeco, upper Derby, Conn.

Four Men Held As Dope Peddlers Among Teen-Agers

New York, April 14 (AP)—Four men were under arrest today, as police pressed a drive against sale of heroin, marijuana and other drugs to teen-agers.

The four, seized last night in a furnished room in the Bronx, were charged with possessing and conspiring to sell narcotics. Bronx Assistant District Attorney David Blitt said the arrests were part of a campaign to stamp out sale of narcotics to high school-age youths in the Bronx.

Authorities recently have said sales to such groups were on the increase. Published reports have told of dimly-lit hideaways where youths gathered to take dope.

Those arrested last night, all Negroes, gave their names as El-

John Smith, 27; Kenneth C. Edwards, 25; Mac Hayes, 20, and Louis Brooks, 22.

Blitt described the group as narcotic ring "pushers" whose assignment was to sell heroin and marijuana to teen-agers.

In the room where the four were arrested, at 881 Union avenue, police said they found a half-ounce of pure heroin, worth $500 when filtered for peddling. Police also found a quantity of marijuana seeds and an opium pipe.

Child Loses His Hand

Melrose, N. Y., April 14 (AP)—Two-year-old Michael Mount watched his father grind hamburger, then tried to imitate him. The toddler visited the meat market yesterday. When his father, Robert, turned his back, the child climbed on a chair and thrust his hand into the top of the meat grinder. Surgeons had to amputate his hand.

A whole would drown quickly if deprived of air.

New York, April 13 (AP)—And another thing businessmen do that annoys the ladies: Calling them old at 35.

Age discrimination against their sex in getting jobs—when men aren't considered old at 35—is added to a long list of grievances in women's fight for equality in business. More important, even, than the current squabbles in New York over whether women should be barmaids, or should work after midnight, or should serve on corporate boards of directors.

But the battle of the sexes in business takes still another twist: An industrialist, and employer, seriously suggests today that more men of a certain age would do well to take a tip from some of the women and dye their hair. Not out of vanity, understand, but as an economic necessity.

fell young to hold or get a job, in his view. He uses big words like psychosomatic, meaning that if you get to thinking you're old and beaten down, you'll develop the disease of old age. The way out: Let the doctor work on your insides, let the cosmetic industry do a job on your exterior.

"The nation," says Bobet, thinking of the public weal, but with maybe a side-glance at cosmetic and pharmaceutical sales, "can't afford to support all these people who retire too early, or who can't get jobs because they look old, or who really get old too early because they don't watch their health. For the good of the country, we've got to keep more people working; keep them going strong at 70 or 75."

The woman—or the man—who makes the most of her looks, may be helping solve the nation's pension problem, in Bobet's view. His own hair, by the way, is a undyed iron gray.

Others are attacking the problem, too, from different angles. There are 40-plus clubs devoted to finding jobs for their members. Their slogan is "There is no substitute for experience." Among the cities in which they've formed such cooperative job-seeking clubs are Boston, Buffalo, Chicago, Cleveland, Philadelphia, New York, Los Angeles and Detroit.

More than a fifth of our population now is between 45 and 65, and by 1975 this is expected to grow to around a fourth of the total population. The Warrenton, 40 million in 25 years. Add to that the 11 million, or eight per cent, now over 65, and you have the question:

How large a portion of the population can the rest of the nation support in an idleness which they may not want?

Industrial Club Speaker April 20

F. PAUL DEUELL

F. Paul Deuell, assistant to the production control manager at the IBM plant No. 2 in Poughkeepsie, will be guest speaker at the dinner meeting of the Industrial Management Club of Kingston, Thursday, April 20. Mr. Deuell will speak on the subject: "Human Relations in Industry."

From 1944 to 1946, Mr. Deuell served in the capacity of manager of the I.B.M. plant department of education. Assigned to the personnel department, he was appointed personnel manager in 1947, holding this office until his recent promotion to his present position. He is a graduate of the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Dinner will be served in the banquet hall of the local Y.M.C.A.

at 6:30 p. m., by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the "Y." Members of the club may bring a guest.

Donald Decker, chairman of the program and entertainment committee, will be in charge of the entertainment program following the dinner.

John Haulenbeck, chairman of the membership committee, recently announced that all men joining the club by the May meeting shall be considered charter members.

The Industrial Management Club is affiliated with the local "Y" and the National Council of Industrial Management Clubs. It was organized recently for the purpose of promoting better human relations within industry. Membership is offered to executive and supervisory employees of local and nearby industries.

Officers were elected at the March meeting and include Ralph M. Cooper, president; John H. Haulenbeck, 1st vice president; Herbert M. Siller, 2nd vice president; Victor E. Fletcher, recording secretary; H. Irwin Etchells, treasurer; Burton S. Tandy, executive secretary; L. George Obarly and Mario Liguori, directors.

Members and prospective members alike are urged to attend the meeting April 20.

Petaim Asks Reversal

Paris, April 14 (AP)—Aging Marshal Philippe Petaim, serving out a life sentence on bleak Ile d'Yeu as a traitor to France will seek a court reversal of his condemnation, his attorney said today. The attorney, Jacques Isorni, said the 94-year-old marshal, who surrendered France to the Nazis in 1940 and headed the puppet Vichy government, would attempt to reopen his case next month. Isorni said Petaim had instructed him to "seek his vindication if necessary even after his death."

Y.W. Women's Club Names Mrs. Craft President; Hears Talk on Woodstock

Mrs. Raymond Craft was elected president of the Women's Club of the Y.W.C.A. yesterday afternoon, succeeding Mrs. Ralph Harper, retiring president. Other officers chosen were: Mrs. Charles Terwilliger, first vice president; Maj. Helena Clearwater, second vice president; Mrs. Raymond Woodard, secretary; Mrs. Boyd N. Williams, treasurer; Mrs. Samuel Peyer, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. Richard Boerker, chaplain.

At the meeting, last business meeting of the season, reports were given by the chairman of the various groups subsidiary to the club—the Drama, Social Service, Book and Music Appreciation groups.

Guest speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Frederick Smith, who gave a colorful history of Woodstock in answer to the program topic: "Does a Countryside Have a Biography?"

Mrs. Smith spoke of the chiseled stone image found in Cooper Lake when it was drained—evidence of Indians. The first known white man to settle in that locality arrived in 1728, she said, but it was immediately after the Revolution that settlers began to clear the land, struggling constantly to get food and to fight off the wild animals and snakes. Their clothing was made from the wool of sheep they raised and the flax they grew.

In the very early days, Mrs. Smith said, when a man cleared a piece of land, he also felled one pine tree and let it lie—the land was his until the tree decayed. After that, the owner could reclaim the land or charge rent for it. This custom was abolished by a group who wore calico shirts and called themselves the Calico Indians.

When a landlord appeared to collect rent, a horn would be blown. This sound was taken up by each Calico Indian until the entire settlement was informed. Usually the landlord fled. If not, he was tarred and feathered. One was shot. Soon cleared land belonged to the farmer.

Early residents of Woodstock had slaves, she said. One master who was cruel to a girl slave, causing her to fall to her death from a horse, was sentenced by a judge to wear an iron collar for the rest of his life. "Ironically," said Mrs. Smith, "he lived to be 99 years old."

The first industries were inns, followed by the tanneries, and glass factories. Mrs. Smith said there have been reports of gold in the valley, and "silver was once mined here."

Woodstock has had three invasions—first people came for agriculture, next for the hemlock bark, and finally for beauty, Mrs. Smith declared.

She also reviewed the later history of Woodstock as an art and crafts colony, telling of the projects of Ralph Whitehead, Hervey White, and Bolton Brown.

After her talk, tea was served in the Y.W.C.A. parlors by hostesses Mrs. Donald M. Lane, Mrs. Joseph T. Garland, and Mrs. Chester E. Van Gansbeck. Mrs. Raymond Gross poured.

The next meeting will be a dinner meeting April 27 at the Governor Clinton Hotel where the new officers will be installed.

Easter Sunday Bride

Mrs. Ralph P. Tiano, who, before her marriage Sunday at St. Colman's Church, was Miss Mary Barnes of 64 Emerick street. More than 500 guests attended the reception after the wedding ceremony. (Sterling Photo)

Miss Mary Barnes and Ralph P. Tiano Are Married in St. Colman's Church

Miss Mary Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Barnes, 64 Emerick street, became the bride Easter Sunday of Ralph P. Tiano, son of Mrs. Theresa Tiano of the Flatbush Road, and the late Joseph Tiano.

The double ring ceremony was performed at St. Colman's Church by the Rev. Edmund Radford. Miss Margaret Volker was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white slipper gown with a seed pearl sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves, and a full length train.

Her veil of imported French illusion had a scalloped edge and was attached to a beaded Dutch cap tiara. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and baby's breath, tied with white satin streamers.

Miss Margaret Barnes, 45 Gage street, cousin of the bride was maid of honor, wearing a blue tulle gown with matching mitts and headpiece, and carrying American Beauty roses.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Kathryn and Leona Norton of 41 Emerick street. They both carried colonial bouquets of pink roses and delphinium.

Thomas Clausi, of East Kingston, was best man. Ushers were Charles Tiano, cousin of the groom and Joseph Fiore, also of East Kingston.

After a reception for 500 guests at the Kozy Tavern, with music for dancing, the couple left for a wedding trip to New York city. The bride wore a Navy dress with Navy accessories. They will live with the bride's parents for the present.

Both bride and groom attended Kingston High School, and the groom served two years in the Army. He is employed at the Brigham Brick Corporation, East Kingston.

Recently Married

Miss Evamae Richter Becomes Bride Of James McClenahan at St. Paul's

Miss Evamae Richter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Richter, 40 First avenue, was married Easter Sunday in St. Paul's Lutheran Church to James McClenahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McClenahan, 52 Chapel street.

The Rev. Irwin Glotz officiated at the double ring ceremony, and John McCullough, soloist, sang "Oh Promise Me," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Marion Marquart was organist. The church was decorated with Easter lilies and sweet peas.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ankle length white imported Swiss organdy, with a sweetheart neckline, and a white veil. She carried an orchid and a Bible.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Mildred Diffley, 518 Delaware avenue. She wore white organdy over green tulle and carried yellow roses.

Best man was William McClenahan, brother of the groom, and ushers were Chester Diffley, 518 Delaware avenue, and Jack Tandy, Shokan.

After a reception at the Stuyvesant Hotel for 40 guests many of whom came from New York, Connecticut, Albany, Schenectady and White Plains, the couple left for a wedding journey to Canada. The bride wore a brown suit, with beige accessories, and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. McClenahan was graduated from Kingston High School in 1948. Her husband also was graduated from Kingston High School, and attended Union College and Yale University where he studied Japanese. He spent three years in Japan as a warrant officer, junior grade.

Good Taste Today

(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

THE UNENDING JUNIOR!

No problem causes more confusion than a child with the identical name of his father or grandfather or uncle. The following letter is typical of many sent me: "What would you suggest to solve our problem in naming our new baby boy for his father? Is my opinion, he will be John Henry Smith, junior, because my husband is now John Henry Smith. Since his father's death three months ago, my husband has dropped the junior from his own name. However, he thinks the baby will have to be '3rd' as 'Jr.' has too long been identified with him."

If only there were a law forbidding a child to have the same name as his living father—or for that matter grandfather or uncle—what an evening of complications this would be! As there is not, however, your problem is this: Your child must be John Henry Smith, Jr. To call him "3rd" would signify that he is the third living person of the same name, possibly the son or grandson or even nephew of a man of this same name. Further than this the complications are really unending!

Peas and Spoons

Dear Mrs. Post: How should the peas served in a small side dish at the side of the dinner plate be eaten? I mean, fork or spoon?

Answer—Side dishes are not correct, and the use of a teaspoon for vegetables even less so. Correctly the peas are put on your dinner plate and eaten with a fork. But should your hostess serve them as you describe, you should in courtesy to her, do as she does.

Order of Leaving Church

Dear Mrs. Post: After the wedding recessional, who follows the bride party out of church and then who comes next, etc.?

Answer: The bride's mother goes first with the head usher who goes up the aisle for her. The groom's mother follows immediately with the second usher who has gone up for her. After this the fathers and other members of the immediate families leave. After the families and a few intimate friends have gone down the aisle, the ribbons are removed from the other pews allowing people to leave as they do after any other church service.

Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. However, she has written leaflet E-2, "Formal Wedding Procedure," answering pertinent questions about the formal wedding. To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 98, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Charm School Plans To Beautify Teachers

Philadelphia, April 14 (AP)—A charm school designed to make teachers prettier and their pay checks fatter was announced today in Philadelphia.

The board of education thought it up and printed a sales talk in its sedate and scholarly publication in which it asked:

"Would you care to glimpse some of the newest fashions in clothes?"

"Would you like to know some of the hairdos becoming to different types?"

"Does your voice have that quality which makes pupils want to listen? If not, join the class in voice culture."

The school will begin next Monday, be in session after school classes are completed and on Saturdays, and continue for six weeks.

Those who successfully complete the course—taught to teachers by teachers—will receive special credits, the board promised.

The ladies who shine in the charm school classes will be given special consideration for promotion and for increases in salary.

The school board issued a cordial invitation to teachers to attend the classes which it formally designated "Charm School and School of Personality Development."

And it promised:

"We will present as many hints as possible of ways and means to enhance your own charm and personality. Our voice class will help you produce a voice that will attract attention because of its resonance."

The men teachers were not invited.

Need Paper for Money

Washington, April 16 (AP)—The U. S. Treasury is looking for someone to make the paper for the nation's paper money and securities. Secretary of the Treasury Snyder invited bids today to meet the department's need for the "distinctive paper" required. It comes to 152,795,000 sheets of undisclosed size for currency—plus $9,930,000 sheets for public debt securities—about 2,000 tons of paper in all.

Reporter About Town

By Jean Mele

Mrs. Harry Parker Van Wageningen is a bright-looking little woman, with grey hair curling up from a round forehead; with a dramatic flair as a talker; and with an unquenchable determination to wage war against that scourge of humankind—cancer.

For nearly 13 years she's been fighting that war, and when she started, "cancer" was a word you mentioned only in a whisper. It was virtually never mentioned in newspapers or magazines. It was a word surrounded with fear—synonymous with "hopelessness."

And for 13 years Margaret Van Wageningen, of 17 John street, has devoted her life to "shouting from the housetops" that cancer IS curable if caught in time.

The two keys to catching cancer early are (1) knowledge of the symptoms, and (2) courage to go immediately to a doctor.

"It's the people in the age groups in which cancer is most prevalent who are the most fearful," said Mrs. Van Wageningen in her cheerful office at the Tumor Clinic the other day. "But cancer strikes all age groups."

She settled back in her chair to tell a story.

Young Mother

"I recall one case in which cancer developed soon after a child was born. The mother was a woman who was working with me in the Field Army of the American Cancer Society. She noticed a small lump on the child's thigh, and she didn't wait an instant. She went that very day to Buffalo where the condition was diagnosed as cancer."

"Well, that child was treated for a while, and the condition grew worse. Then, at nine months, he was operated on. Well, of course, she had to resign from the Field Army, and I lost track of her. I was so sure the child was dead that I couldn't bring myself to write to her."

"Then—three years ago it was—I passed through the town she lived in, in Allegheny county, and I stopped in to see her. After we visited for a while, she said, 'Oh, Mrs. Van Wageningen, you haven't seen our little boy!'"

Mrs. Van Wageningen paused, to let the drama penetrate. "He was one of the handsomest boys I've ever laid my eyes on," she said. "He was perfectly normal. He still had a scar on his leg from the operation, but he was normal in every way."

Praises Husband

Mrs. Van Wageningen gives her husband, Dr. Harry P. Van Wageningen, all the credit for her decision to enter the lists against cancer. "He had been active in the State Federation of Women's Club for years," she said. "In 1936 or '37 I withdrew as director of the State Federation's Third District. I had no sooner gotten home when I received a letter asking me to take over the vice commandship of the Field Army of the American Cancer Society."

"Well, I felt I had given so much of my time to the Federation, I felt I needed a rest. I talked it over with Dr. Van Wageningen, and he said, 'Well, Mother, I think that's more important than anything you've ever done.'"

"In 18 months I had the Third Judicial District pretty well organized, and the National Commander asked me to organize the entire state! Well, when THAT letter came I was so sure I wasn't going to do it, that I tossed the letter aside."

"Then one day we were sitting on the back porch, Dr. Van Wageningen and I, and he asked me about my work. I told him about the letter I had received. He said:

"Well, you're going to do it, aren't you?" "I said, 'Daddy, I just can't. You like to have me home, and I want to be home. I just can't do it.'"

"You can do anything, Mother! Those were his exact words. 'You can do anything, Mother.'"

"So I finally decided I'd try it. I knew it would be slow, that it would take time to educate the people, but I could see progress all the time."

She was in the state work for 10 years, and then withdrew once more, looking forward to freedom and rest. But with the new Tumor Clinic, there was a great necessity for a more vigorous educational program in Ulster county. The doctors asked her to take over the job of executive director of the Ulster County Branch of the American Cancer Society, and later the job of cancer campaign chairman also fell onto her capable shoulders.

Here in Ulster county, she does a Trojan job of organizing meetings, arranging for speakers, speaking herself, arranging for exhibits, radio and newspaper publicity, distribution of pamphlets, showing of films, and never-ending personal public relations work.

"I've arranged to have club women tour the clinic," she said. "That's my bait. Many of them would like to see the clinic, but I always make sure they see an educational film and hear a little talk first."

She said they very often come semi-reluctantly, fearful of what they may see and hear, but their attitude changes radically before they leave. "Education conquers fear."

What Fear Can Do

"Something happened very soon after I took over the state commandship," she said, "and I've told about it many times. It's an inspiring story, and after I have told it, no one can refuse us help."

One day, in her office, she received a letter signed only "A Victim." The only clue to the writer was the name of the town from which the letter was mailed.

Mrs. Van Wageningen closed her blue eyes and repeated the letter, slowly, from memory.

"Two years ago," the letter said, "I developed a lump in my breast. . . . I told my husband about it, but he said it was my imagination."

"My imagination has grown considerably since then. . . . I had an aunt die of cancer at 80—just 50 years older than I am today—and I made up my mind then and there that I would never die of cancer."

"An express train goes through this town at 70 miles an hour. I'm going to have an amputation."

"My only worry is leaving my two children. My boy is handicapped by his eyesight, but he'll be all right. He's an adaptable boy. And my little girl will be cared for by her grandmother."

The writer closed by praising Mrs. Van Wageningen's work but saying "It should have been started two years ago."

Mrs. Van Wageningen read the letter, and moved instantly to try to track down the writer. Several road maps didn't even show the name of the town, but she finally found it in a remote section of the Adirondacks.

"I didn't expect to find her, but I had to try," she said. She contacted the county commander and one hour after the county commander had been reached, the writer of the letter had been located. The detective work had been done by questioning the school principal in the town about a boy with bad eyesight, who had a younger sister.

The woman was persuaded to go to a doctor, she was operated on, and in six weeks she was home again—and she has stayed well ever since.

"You see," said Mrs. Van Wageningen, "her husband was so sure there was no help for cancer, that he insisted it was her imagination. He didn't want her to know she had it."

Seven Danger Signals

I promised Mrs. Van Wageningen I'd put the seven danger signals in this article, and here they are:

(1) Any sore that does not heal; (2) a lump or thickening, in the breast or elsewhere; (3) unusual bleeding or discharge; (4) any change in a wart or mole; (5) persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing; (6) persistent hoarseness or cough; (7) any change in normal bowel habits.

At the last reckoning, there were 961 known cases of cancer in Ulster county.

City's Major Bowling Squads Set for Tourney Action This Week-End

Firing Is on Tonight; Locals to Roll Sunday

Kingston's major women's bowling squads will have their fling at the standing board on the 9:30 p. m. squad on Sunday, April 16. Firing resumes tonight at the Bowlatorium with 48 teams taking the lanes after the Easter recess.

Appearing on the late Sunday squad will be the Smith Avenue Storage quintet, champions of the Colonial Women's League, Safford and Seuders, Jones Dari-Ettes, Gardeland Tractor and Ferraro's Bowl-O-Ettes.

Any or all of the local combinations must be conceded an outside chance of climbing into first place.

Trailways Roll Met Major Five

Adirondack Trailways resume their exhibition match schedule against the Roger V. Loria squad of the Metropolitan Major League of New York City on Saturday at 8:30 p. m. at the Ferraro Bowl-drome. Some of the best bowlers in the Met area, including Marty Marino, will be in the Loria lineup. The Trailways will use their regular lineup.

College Milers Set For Indoor Feature

New York, April 14 (AP)—Yale's George Wade and Villanova's John Joe Barry will battle one another and the clock tonight in the featured mile race of the 7th Regiment's indoor games.

Both runners have bettered the army record of 4:14.7 set in 1939 by Blaine Rideout of North Texas State. Two of Barry's teammates, Browning Ross and George Thompson, also will start. Barry holds a 3-2 edge over Wade in races this winter.

Hugo Malocco of New York U. and Seton Hall instructor Frank Fox will tangle in the 600-yard race.

SPORTS

By CHARLES J. TIANO
Freeman Sports Editor

Bagatelles:

The Kingston Power Boat Association will make a terrific award on July 9—date of the ninth anniversary regatta. Any member of the K.P.B.A. can give you the info. . . Did you see where the "poor, tired" Detroit Wings romped over the "fresh, rested" New York Rangers in opener of the Stanley Cup finals. . . Reminds us of the old alibi the National Leaguers used to brush off about World Series time every year. The Nationals were supposed to be all worn out by their hectic pennant races, while the American League representative generally would win a breeze and be fully rested for the fall classic. The last couple of years changed all that.

Census takers haven't finished making their calls yet, but here is a statistical note they have unearthed. There are 58,973,422 wrestling fans. There is one basic plot to all wrestling matches. It is therefore a 58,973,422 to 1 bet that you can pick the winner.

Flotsam and Jetsam:

According to the grapevine, Ernie McCormick, big New York right hander who pitched for Stauble's Bakery in the City League last season, has been approached by another team for the 1950 campaign. Bill Lohrmann has volunteered to take over the baseball coaching duties at New York State Teachers. Bill, a former Kingston Red and major leaguer with the Giants, Red and Dodgers, wound up his OB career with Jersey City of the International last year. . . Johnny Fluchino, former Colonial and Poughkeepsie catcher, who turned pitcher with amazing success in the closing stages of last year's pennant race, has quit organized ball to take over a dry cleaning business in Long Island. When the Chiefs pitching staff disintegrated in August, Fluchino stepped into the breach and amazed everyone, including himself, by starting and completing six games, winning five, and hanging up a phenomenal 1.85 earned run average. His foster ball stuff murdered the Colonial League batters.

Of Men and Mice:

Here is something for the local tennis hotshots to chew on. Cy's Ding, Hudson Valley League champion, finished TWELVE games behind another Newburgh squander in the Hill City Classic League. The team that outlasted Cy's so convincingly is substantially the same one that finished a half dozen games behind the Dinermen in the H.V.B.L. race. Proving that a good pair of home spots can do wonders for a bowling team. . . A.B.C. officials are really worried about the "white clause" controversy that is certain to rage at the annual convention on May 12 in Columbus. Lawsuits against the Congress are now pending in four major cities—New York, Chicago, Indianapolis and Columbus. Newburgh Academy has only four baseball veterans returning, but one happens to be John Bowman, a first rate finger. In other words, N.F.A. will have a good ball club. Wonder how George Kenny rates the Giants' chances for 1950. Silly question.

The conversation in Jake Senor's bearmy drifted to old time ball players like Howie McAniff, Sid Ross and Bud Collins, three fair country pitchers. Then somebody mentioned Steve Connolly, one of the finest natural athletes ever developed in the area. "There was a fellow with a real natural swing," observed Ken Ross. "And he could pitch, too." Some fans may not recall it, but Steve was a better than average basketball player, too. Connolly was a standout in an era that embraced such local baseball giants as Joe Hoffman, Hank Cragan, Kid Moore, Jack Robins, Bill Schwab, Hank Smodes and a host of others. Those baseball days are gone forever.

Major Hoople will soon release his foolproof predictions on the 1950 pennant races. Any day now.

Rangers Even Cup Series With Wings

Toronto, April 14 (AP)—A dead-game center who refused to be halted by injuries infused new confidence today in the New York Rangers, seeking their first Stanley Cup hockey title in ten years.

Thirty-year-old Edgar Laprade, playing with a knee brace spearheaded the Rangers last night to a 3-1 victory over the Detroit Red Wings to tie the best-of-seven championship series at one game apiece.

The third game will be played Saturday night at the Maple Leaf Gardens here, leaving as the Rangers' home ice because the circus is playing at Madison Square Garden.

Laprade, who has a bum knee as the result of an accident the last week of the National Hockey League season and who has been bothered by a recurring groin injury, notched two third period goals to break a 1-1 tie and trounce the Red Wings.

The Detroiters, regular season champions, are solid favorites to take the Stanley Cup.

Kramer Wins 76th

Binghamton, N. Y., April 14 (AP)—Jack Kramer has won his 76th match in 100 professional tennis exhibitions against Pancho Gonzales. The score last night was 6-1, 6-1 for Kramer. In the preliminary, Frank Parker defeated Bobby Riggs, 6-4, 6-2. They play in Yonkers tonight.

Training Camp News in Brief

(By The Associated Press)

Brooklyn, April 14 (AP)—Pitcher Ralph Branca came away from an arm examination at Baltimore with good news today.

The Dodger hurler said Dr. George Bennett told him the pain in his arm was mostly muscular. Asked if he is ready to pitch again, Branca said:

"I don't see why not. I shouldn't even miss a turn."

New York, April 14 (AP)—Yankee Manager Casey Stengel believes he has so many good men that he'll have to play them on a share-the-work plan.

Stengel expects to use the two-plateau system at third base, left field, right field and first base. He claims there isn't a regular player now at any of those spots.

Indianapolis, April 14 (AP)—Eddie Stanky, the New York Giants second baseman who gets on base one way or another has a rival in outfielder Don Mueller.

Mueller got on base three times in yesterday's 4-2 loss to Cleveland, once on a walk and twice on hits. He leads the Giants in most hits, 42.

There was little doubt about Stanky's batting three times walked twice and singled. He has drawn 31 walks in 25 games.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 14 (AP)—It was official today Bob Lemon and not Bob Feller will be on the mound when the Cleveland Indians open this year.

There was little doubt about Lemon getting the honor, but Boudreau held off his announcement until just before game time yesterday.

Feller has been almost a fixture at the job, hurling three inaugurals before the war and four since he returned from wartime service in the navy.

Lemon tuned up for the opener yesterday when he went the route for the first time this season and held the New York Giants to five hits. Cleveland won the contest, 4-2, in Kansas City, 4-2.

Philadelphia, April 14 (AP)—Connie Mack warms up for his 50th year as manager of the Philadelphia Athletics today as he sends his A's against the Phils in the first of a three-game city series.

The 87-year old Mack will send little southpaw Bobby Shantz against the Phils.

Manager Eddie Sawyer of the Phils isn't sure who will pitch. In fact he said he won't know until just before game time.

Chicago, April 14 (AP)—The Cubs arrived in Chicago today to be greeted by freezing temperatures. Weather cold enough to force cancellation of the first game of three-city series with the White Sox. If it warms up the crossstown contests will be played tomorrow at Comiskey Park and wind up Sunday at Wrigley Field.

St. Louis, April 14 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Browns planned to work out today on their home field.

The two teams will play a two-game city series Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Boston, April 14 (AP)—The Boston Braves and Red Sox resume their intra-city series this afternoon at Braves Field. The Sox are two up on the Braves. They won the home and home series in the south and north but one of three games scheduled here to retain their city crown. Billy Southworth named his 21-game winning ace, Warren Spahn, as the Braves starting pitcher. Joe McCarthy plans to use lefty Mel Parnell. The Sox arrived this morning from Richmond, Va. with little time to prepare for the afternoon game. They whaled the Richmond Colts of the Piedmont League, 16-7, yesterday. Ted Williams and Vern Stephens hit homers.

Gleason Named by Gall to Face Bushwicks; Rain Cancels Game

Other Starters Listed For Sunday's Exhibition

Lakewood, N. J., April 14—With snow flurries putting a clamp in the scheduled Thursday afternoon game for the Kingston Colonials at this New Jersey training base, Manager Emil Gall took time yesterday to announce his probable starting lineup against the Bushwicks in Woodhaven, L. I., Sunday afternoon.

Gall, who expressed satisfaction with the progress of his charges after the first week of workouts, named Johnny Gleason, former hurler in the Boston Red Sox chain, to open against the Bushwicks.

Gleason, who chalked up a 7-4 record with Milford of the Eastern Shore League, later hurried for Lynn of the New England State circuit and wound up with a record of nine wins and eight defeats.

The Pleasant Valley youngster advanced as far as Scranton and then developed a sore arm. He has looked razor sharp in his workouts with the Colonials here and has shown no traces of his sore flipper. At this writing, Gall is counting on Gleason to nail down one of the starting berths.

However, his performance against the hard-hitting Bushwicks will go a long way in determining this factor.

Gall, who formerly caught for the Bushwicks, will remain in the dugout this week as he has named young Joey Allegretti to handle the work behind the plate. Allegretti was up with the Sanford club, operated by the Giants and came to camp as a top-drawer prospect.

Listed for starting duty in the infield will be Joe Spozza, holdover first sacker; Harvey Porter, second base; Gerry Murray, holdover at third; and Johnny Walther of Troy at short.

A couple of youngsters will probably see action in the infield though. Leslie Sawyer of Summit, N. J., has drawn a lot of attention of the club with his fancy work around first and some observers feel he may even push Spozza into the back seat. Walther, a product of the Class C Tobacco State League, looks like a sure bet to start the season at short in place of the veteran Ralph Matzer. Walther set a new record for the Tobacco circuit with 134 walks and figured in 170 double plays.

Outfield Is Strong

The outfield situation is one department which is not giving Gall any sleepless nights. With the veteran Danny Perlmutter scheduled for his usual berth in center, the Colonials have a couple of newcomers slated for left and right respectively.

Frank Merola, who hit 316 in the Class C Middle Atlantic League, looks good for the left field job while Al Gerard, a Puerto Rican, has shown plenty of stuff in his bid to nail down the right field spot. Gerard whacked a nifty 360 in the Puerto Rican League this year and possesses a fine arm.

Gall also hinted today that the young Mort Freiligh, the former Saugerties High School moundsman, will be retained for the balance of the training period. The Colonial skipper added that from what he has seen to date Freiligh looks very promising.

Meanwhile, pink slips were being drawn up today for eight of the squad of 35 players. Gall as

City Two League To Meet Tuesday

Managers of the Kingston City Baseball League will elect officers for the 1950 season Tuesday, April 18, at 7 p. m. at the Y.M.C.A., Eddie Murphy, secretary has announced.

Other positions including umpires, groundkeeper, collector and public address system attendant, will be filled at that session.

Officials of the two-league circuit met earlier this week for a general discussion of plans for the coming season.

yet, however, has not issued the list of hopefuls who will be dropped.

Another important development was announced by the club officials today regarding a possible working agreement with A. G. della Banger club of the North Atlantic League. The Colonials, incidentally, will meet the Bangers in a pair of exhibitions at Banger on April 22 and 23.

Bowling

Eddie Marks fashioned a 602 triple and 241 single to cop honors in the Junior Major circuit at the Bowlorium this week.

Marks opened with his 241 blast and then shot 198 and 163.

Four pins over the "600" mark was George Shufeldt who rocked 233-596; A. Gerak 222-586; C. J. Costello 573; E. Cunningham 204-572; B. Slicker 220-570; Jimmy "Rip" Daniels 200-568; Jack Parslow 553; and A. Carrado 550.

R. Dellay lost out on a sure-fire 600 triple in the Chaleit Leaders this week after cracking 240 and 200 in his last two games. A 145 opener gave him a 585 three-timer.

E. Whitaker was runnerup with 212-200-578; T. Nikolettich 201-567; W. Doolittle 204-533; C. Rellly 215-531.

A 491 blast was top pinfall in the Chaleit Pioneer Women's League this week as Edna Blakey rolled 151-171-172 for the top score.

Also of note were E. Schoonmaker 451; M. Moylan 437; H. Sutton 417; M. Dellay 413; and Kay North 411.

Dolores Jankowski provided the lone 400 in the Women's Booster at the "Palace" this week by shooting 188-115-163 for 466.

It was Bill Hornbeck again in the drivers' seat for the Y Federation American League last night at the Y drives. Hornbeck flashed 199-164-224 for 587.

Elsewhere in the circuit Herb Slight posted 545; Bill Murray 533 and Howard Schussler 531.

Elstons are the new champs of the Y Mercantile League although winning only one game from Matthews No. 1 last night at the Y drives. Matthews capped the opener by 644-572 but dropped the middle game 626-605. In a futile manner Matthews won the finale by 683-632.

F. Sarbacher, meanwhile, took down individual honors with a 551 on games of 180-193-198. It was one of the two 500's rolled in league competition. The other belonged to Ferd Short who packed games of 185-161-162 for 506.

Sue Helms walked off with high triple honors in the Women's Booster League at the Central Rec lanes Thursday night with a 479 series built on games of 161-176-142.

Also of note were T. Garon with 419; Stella Schwarz 414; J. Hines 302; and Cora DeCicco 401.

Sandwiching in a sizzling 254 blast around games of 195 and 221, Andy Ferraro topped the pinfall in the Bowldrome Major wheel Thursday night with a 670 triple to take down top honors.

Twenty pins off the pace was Frank "Boots" Leskie who fired 215-232-203 for 650.

Paul Masters missed the "600" club by one pin with 215-599; Lew Hynes shot 218-206-597; Jim Swency 204-594; Larry Weishaup 205-213-588; George Flemings 203-583; Elwood Robinson 577; Fred Ferraro 205-200-577; and Charlie Manfro 577.

Progress Clothes fired a team triple of 2851 on scores of 959-960-903. The Grand posted the top team single of 1001 and had a 2768 series.

Judge Tosses Out Discrimination Suit Aimed at American Bowling Congress

Columbus, O., April 14 (AP)—The 47th American Bowling Congress gets under way tomorrow. A taxpayer's suit for a temporary injunction, termed an 11th hour attempt to halt the 60-day 10-pin show, was tossed out of common pleas court yesterday.

Judge Earl D. Parker made quick work of his decision after an all-day hearing.

The jurist declared: "I could take this case under advisement, but I see no use delaying my decision. My mind is made up. It appears to me this suit was filed rather late, with the tournament starting Saturday."

He then dismissed the petition and set a cost bond of $200 in case the plaintiff, Harold V. Burt, decided to appeal.

Burt, a Timken Roller Bearing Co. employee who is a member of the A.B.C. and bowls in a sanctioned league, charged in his suit that the Congress is guilty of discrimination in that it limits membership to white males.

He filed his suit March 28, almost a year after the A.B.C. had signed a contract with the state of Ohio for use of the Fairgrounds Coliseum for the tournament.

Burt testified yesterday he did not know until late February or early March the tournament was scheduled here, that he hadn't talked to anyone in his bowling league about it, and that he did not read the sports pages of the two papers to which he subscribes. He bows with the "Wildcat" club in the city of 2173 United Steelworkers (C.I.O.) league.

Date of a hearing on a plea for a permanent injunction has not been set, but indications were such a hearing would not be completed until after the tournament.

Judge Parker outlined proceedings with his assides, but kept a firm hand on court decorum. He opened the case with:

"I'm not a bowler, and I don't know what's going on in the bowling world. But I understand the A.B.C. doesn't want colored boys in its tournament, and that the tournament starts Saturday. Now let's see what this is all about."

In answer to the charge the A.B.C. was discriminating against Negroes, attorney Earl Morris of the defense said the congress is a private membership, social organization.

"It has the privilege and right of selecting its members," he said. "There is no statute against it, and no law prevents it from doing so."

Attorney David Clayman, who represented Burt, questioned the "private membership, social organization" angle.

The state of Ohio, a co-defendant in the suit, contended it could lease its facilities to anyone and testified more than a score of organizations of all kinds had rented the Coliseum within the last year. The plaintiff charged the state with being a party to discrimination.

Bing Set for Tourney

New York, April 14 (AP)—The most amateur of American athletes, a chap named Bing Crosby, departed today for the British golfing wars. An amateur, says the dictionary, is one who practices an art (or sport) not as a livelihood or professionally but for the love of it. That's Bing. He is competing in the British amateur golf tournament at St. Andrews, May 22-27.

Cercone Pays $25

Pvt. Paul A. Cercone, 622 Broadway, a member of Headquarters Battery, 156th Field Artillery, who was arrested yesterday morning by local police for military authorities on a charge of being absent without leave from drills, paid a fine of $25 last night. Pvt. Cercone, who was brought before a court martial board in Poughkeepsie, was given the choice of paying the fine or spending 15 days in jail.

Osborn to Colgate

Hamilton, N. Y., April 14 (AP)—Ted Osborn, end coach at Kentucky University since 1948, today joined Colgate University's football coaching staff. Head Coach Paul O. Bixler announced he had appointed Osborn to coach the end and had shifted Howard Hartman from the end to the line.

Sets Race Dates

New York, April 14 (AP)—The Thistle Club Association of 17-foot contour racing sloops said today it will hold its national championship regatta on Long Island Sound Aug. 24-26.

Stock Cars Begin Middletown Track Season on Sunday

Middletown—Stock car racing, that fast-growing thrill-a-minute sport, returns to Victory Speedway here Sunday afternoon. Time trials will get underway at 2:05 p. m.

Featuring the best drivers in the east and many area operators, the kick-off program is expected to draw a record crowd to the fifth-mile asphalt oval at the Orange County Fair Grounds.

Racing at Victory Speedway, considered the fastest track in the country, will be sponsored by the Atlantic Stock Car Club of New Jersey, the same group which has presented crowd-appealing programs throughout the east.

Topping the list of well-known drivers who will be on hand Sunday is Johnny Rogers of Charlotte, N. C. former stunt man with Jack Kautman, Joe Chitwood and the late Lucky Teter.

Rogers was the feature star with the Jimmy Lynch show at the New York World's Fair in 1939-40, and is considered the greatest living stunt man in the country today.

He began driving stocks in 1946 in the south and clinched seventh spot in the National championship in 1947. Last year he was voted the most popular stock car driver in the country.

Among the area operators who will drive under the Atlantic pennant are brothers, Larry and Russ Dodd of Ellenville and Middletown, Johnny Vanone of Newburgh and brothers, Joe and George Romer of Middletown, two boys who stole a number of shows here last year.

Avery Re-elected Moose Governor; Member Drive On

At the annual election Thursday night Raymond Avery was chosen for his second successive term as governor of Kingston Lodge 970, Loyal Order of Moose, which is in the midst of a membership drive, with a class scheduled for initiation on Sunday, May 21.

Governor Avery called for the support of every Moose member in a program of activity for the ensuing year and expressed appreciation for the cooperation given during the term he just finished.

Elected to serve with him were the following officers: Joseph Fabiano, secretary; Francis McMahon, treasurer; Joseph Myers, prelate; Edward Cline, junior governor and Walter Fitzgerald, trustee for three years. A representative turnout of Moose members took part in the election.

The class initiation on May 21 will be in honor of Alderman-at-Large Kelly, a member of Kingston lodge, and according to reports it will be a large one. Letters to affiliates of the lodge are urging that each bring in at least one new member.

The Moose of America have a program dedicated to helping the children of the nation, and Kingston Lodge plans to exhibit its efforts this year in helping the growing generation of the city. As a start on its program for the youngsters, the lodge will entertain 50 members of the Kingston Boys Club and Director Alexander "Pop" Fuhman at a dinner in Moose Hall on the evening of Wednesday, April 26.

Last year the lodge received a citation commending it for its activities in the interest of youth, and Tony Erena, director of the program, was awarded a personal citation from the national organization.

One of the major factors in attracting new members into the fold of Moosehood is the program for child welfare and the aid given to those who are alone in their declining years. Last year at Mooseheart, the home for boys and girls, the Moose took care of 784 children. At Moosehaven in Florida, 305 men and women enjoyed the facilities of the residence for aged folk.

Governor Avery reported that the Moose is growing rapidly throughout the nation, and urged that Kingston Lodge keep abreast of other progressive chapters. At the state convention last year, the total membership was given as 831,224. It has grown considerably since then, Avery said last night.

Bennett Says He Was in Shady, Not Sunday but Prior

Reginald Bennett of Chichester, district superintendent of the Fourth Supervisors District, today denied a statement attributed to him to the effect that he had stated the Shady school would be closed within two years. Bennett said he had never made such a statement and he further denied that he had been in Shady last Sunday circulating a petition "based on the fact that the state might close the Shady school within two years." District Superintendent Bennett said he had visited Shady on Saturday but on Sunday was at home attending church in his home community.

There will be a special meeting next Tuesday at 8 p. m. in Shady for the purpose of considering the entrance of the Shady district into the Ontario Central School District.

A vote is being taken in the Ontario Central School District on the proposal to raise $1,850,000 for erection of a central school at Boiceville.

Favors One Tax Form

Albany, N. Y., April 14 (AP)—Senator Thomas C. Desmond said today New Yorkers should have to fill out only one income tax form to cover state and federal levies. He proposed that the State Department of Taxation and Finance work out a system to permit taxpayers to file duplicates of their federal returns, instead of separate state forms. The Newburgh Republican said in a statement that slight modifications of the tax rates, if necessary, might be worked out so that the total tax would not be different from that under existing state forms. "Some changes in the law might be needed," he noted. But, he added, "these are small hurdles toward a goal as important as easing the wear and tear on our taxpayers' frayed nerves."

Dewey Vetoes Measure To Protect Dairymen

Albany, N. Y., April 14 (AP)—

Governor Dewey today vetoed a bill that would have cleared the way for uncontrolled shipment of newly developed milk products into New York state.

Under terms of present law, milk and cream may not be shipped into the state without a permit from the health department.

The bill would have restricted the definition of milk and cream to "fluid milk or cream (sweet or sour)." Agriculture Commissioner C. Chester DuMont wrote Dewey that "it has been called to my attention that many new products are being developed—such as frozen milk—which should be included in any change in this basic health law."

DuMont added that "these would not come under this limited definition."

The bill was introduced by Assemblyman Paul Talbot, Otsego Republican.

Dewey said the interests of New York dairymen might have been imperiled.

Howell Drops Ice, man said, "But it is most improbable that it affected the general storm system."

The spokesman said the tests by Dr. Wallace E. Howell, the Harvard scientist hired by New York city to bring extra rain to fill the city's reservoirs, were concerned only with "single clouds."

Part of Whole System
Today's freakish weather, which brought snow as far north as Albany, and as far west as Syracuse, is part of a "whole weather system," the bureau said.

Rains were reported general as far north as Maine.

Dr. Howell, after sowing 100 pounds of dry ice into clouds over the city's watershed yesterday, said he wasn't sure whether he got any results.

There already were some little snow flurries around his plane when the ice was dropped.

"We may have helped to make them stronger and we may not," he said. "It's impossible to tell."

Actually, he added, it will take considerable time, and a chance to compare regular precipitation averages with periods when rain-making efforts are made in order to determine results.

Previous plans to seed the clouds have been frustrated by rains or flood conditions on streams in the watershed.

The city reservoirs now are about three-fourths full. A year ago at this time, they were virtually at capacity.

City officials say the reservoirs must be full by June 1 to keep the city supplied with water through the dry summer.

Indochina Will ...

will be financed from President Truman's special $75,000,000 military fund for use in the general area of China. Of this, $10,000,000 has been earmarked for Thailand and $5,000,000 for Indonesia. Economic help is projected for the same region in pending E.C.A. and point four legislation.

Officials said they hope negotiations with the French on Indochina will produce an accord before Secretary of State Acheson meets with Foreign Minister Schuman of France next month in Europe. This country has been pressing for:

1. Some gesture such as a formal request for American assistance signed by former Emperor Bao Dai, head of the new Vietnamese state, and by representatives of Laos and Cambodia, as well as by France.

2. Administration of American economic aid by the three Indochinese states, as well as France, along with provisions giving the new states at least an advisory voice in the disposition of arms.

3. Greater French stress on the independence within the French union which was granted to Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia in last month's Paris agreement.

4. Transfer of the French governor's palace at Saigon to Bao Dai to increase his prestige.

5. Administration of Indo-China affairs by the French Foreign Office, rather than by the Colonial Office, as at present.

Most of these demands have met with resistance from the French who have stressed that the March agreement left France with the heavy burden of defense and the responsibility for Indo-China's foreign relations.

Odd Fellows Elect Van Kleeck Deputy

A the annual meeting of the Grand Committee, I.O.O.F., of the District of Ulster, held Wednesday at the rooms of Bearsville Lodge, No. 533, at Bearsville, Winston Van Kleeck of Bearsville Lodge was elected district deputy to succeed Aaron Gray who had held that office for two terms. Gray was unable to attend the meeting and Past District Deputy J. Henry Hill of Saugerties presided.

Elwyn C. Davis of West Shokan was re-elected secretary-treasurer for the 20th consecutive year. Elections were by acclamation.

All of the lodges in the district were represented with the exception of West Saugerties. There were fifty-six members present.

Past Grandas who received the Grand Committee degree were: Winston Van Kleeck, Abram Smith, Burton Barringer and Lester Spencer Davis of Shokan Lodge, No. 491, Glenford H. Myers and William H. Raymond of Saugerties and John Wingert and Clifford Carnwright of Bearsville Lodge.

A silent standing tribute was paid to members of the Grand Committee who have died since the last annual meeting, including Arthur E. Trowbridge who died February 10.

The secretary was empowered to write an obituary and memorial for the Grand Lodge Record in memory of Mr. Trowbridge and a page in the minutes of the meeting was also dedicated to his memory.

A report by the treasurer was received and approved, the report showing a balance of $130.02. The finance committee recommended a per capita tax of 20 cents per member for the ensuing year to defray expenses for the year. There are over 533 members in the district.

Endorsed at the meeting were Benjamin H. Saxen of Mechanic Lodge, No. 113, for District Deputy Grand Master; and for other Grand Lodge officers Frank L. Reiner of Peter Cooper Lodge, No. 673, master; William Thurlow of Westminster Lodge, No. 788, grand warden; Clayton W. Boyce of Salina Lodge, No. 97, grand secretary; William Klum-pen, grand treasurer; Arthur G. Adams of Ithaca Lodge, No. 771, grand representative.

An invitation was extended by Shokan Lodge, No. 491, I.O.O.F., to hold the 1951 Grand Committee meeting there next April.

The committee on credentials is: Sidney A. Johnson, Jack O'Pakenen, Alonzo Davis, Finance committee members are Virgil C. Gordon, John Pepper and George Wood. Committee on necrology, Reginald E. Davis, Harry Lincoln and Harold Reynolds.

District Deputy Gray, unable to be present due to illness, sent a message through Chairman Hill thanking all members for their cooperation and his annual report was also read by Mr. Hill.

A roast beef dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock by members of Akapae Rebekah Lodge of Bearsville.

Ground to Be Broken For Project by Church

Ground will be broken Saturday at 2 p. m. in the church yard of the First Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, corner of Wall and Main streets, the Rev. Arthur E. Oudemool, minister, announced today.

The ceremony will officially launch the $100,000 addition and improvement project at the uptown church. Contracts for the work were let March 31.

Howard R. St. John, who is general chairman, is expected to speak. Roger Loughran, local attorney, who is elder at the church, also is scheduled to speak briefly. The Rev. Mr. Oudemool will turn over the first spade of ground.

The project calls for the addition of 14 church school classrooms, other meeting rooms, kitchen, stage and other facilities. Charles Ashley is chairman of the building committee and Herbert McKay is the campaign manager.

The proposed addition will be the first structural change to the present building since 1882 and 1883, when under the pastorate of Dr. John Garvey Van Slyke the chapel, now Bethany Hall, was erected and other improvements made at a cost of $38,000.
